IN MEMORIAM

In memory of E. W. "Pete" Martin.

The lights are beautiful; the weather is fine
It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas time.

Everyone is getting all excited and gay
And then we realize you'll be missing on Christmas Day.

The family is getting all fixed and prepared
We'll all pause for a minute to say our prayers.

So as we go on through Christmas week
We thank you Lord, for people such as "Pete",

In memory of Bennett Harding who died December 26, 1965.
Gone dear Bennett, but not forgotten.
It's been a lonely eleven years.
We still miss your love and sweet smile.
The days come and go but your Memory still lingers in our hearts.

They'll Love A Cheery Cherry Pie!

For a very cherry Christmas, try this dessert delight: Sour Cream Cherry Pie. It's a light, refreshing way to greet the holidays. You can whip it up in no time at all, and it makes a great treat for family or friends. Add a few dabs of red food coloring and you have a festive little Christmas pie. Chances are, you'll find yourself making it all year round.

Sour Cream Cherry Pie filling:
¾ cup sugar
¼ cup cornstarch
2 one-pound cans tart cherries in juice
1 teaspoon almond extract
1 cup yogurt
3 tablespoons sour cream
1½ teaspoons gelatin
red food coloring
10" graham cracker or cream cheese pie shell
topping:
1 cup whipping cream
1 tablespoon confectioners' sugar
¾ teaspoon vanilla
3-4 tablespoons sour cream

Drain cherries and save the juice. Dissolve gelatin in ¼ cup of juice. Combine cherries, sugar, cornstarch and ¾ cup of juice and cook until thickened. Stir in almond extract and dissolved gelatin. Add yogurt and sour cream and mix well. Cool. Blend in red food coloring to achieve desired color. Pour the filling into 10" pie shell and refrigerate until gelatin sets.

Combine whipping cream, confectioners' sugar, vanilla and sour cream and beat to the consistency of whipping cream (about two minutes). Top off the refrigerated pie with this fluffy mixture, and voilà! you have a great holiday taste sensation!

Make A Snowy Christmas Tree

This year, why not give your holiday gifts a three-dimensional look with an easy-to-make decoration like the one photographed here? All you will need are some Q-tips cotton swabs, cardboard, solid-color gift-wrap paper, glue and two small pieces of styrofoam.

Here's how: make a cardboard triangle almost as tall as your wrapped package. Cover it with solid-color gift-wrap paper. Glue a tiny piece of styrofoam on the back. Set the "trunk" of the tree in the other piece of styrofoam, then cover with gift wrap paper.

You will need 41 Q-tips cotton swabs for this snowy tree. Snip off ends with scissors so swabs will cover the cardboard as shown. When the layout looks right, glue them in place and allow to dry thoroughly.

This unique tree can be fastened to the box by taping the styrofoam on the back to the box. Design can be removed easily and used decoratively.

Decorative Idea:
Clear plastic drinking straws and yarn left over from a needlepoint project can be combined to make pretty Christmas tree decorations.

Cut the straws into different lengths and thread brightly colored yarn through them, using your yarn needle. Arrange the straws to form abstract designs or snowflakes and hang them from your tree. Children will enjoy making this type of ornament, too.

Keeping Track of Toys:

Your children will doubtlessly receive many toys and games for Christmas gifts. A week later, you are likely to find these games and toys littered around your house, waiting for the children to pick them up. Why not create a place for these gifts and make picking them up a little easier for the children and for you!

Use vinyl tape in different colors to code toys and shelves. For instance, a doll could have a very small piece of red tape on the bottom of her foot. A larger piece of the same red tape can be placed on the appropriate shelf where the doll should stay when she is not being used.

This same idea has been used sucessfully for many years by kindergarten and nursery school teachers. Little children learn to identify colors along with a sense of responsibility for their possessions.

CAN YOU REVAMP YOUR POLICY?

Insurance companies understand that family circumstances change, so they make a special point of designing their policies to be flexible.

New beneficiaries can be named with very little effort by getting in touch with your agent.

If you desire to switch from endowment to straight life - it is possible to make the change without difficulty so long as the face amount remains the same or is reduced. The premiums for the new policy will be lower than if you started from scratch since your premiums would continue to reflect the age at which you bought the original policy.

In later years, when insurance needs may diminish, a policy can often be adjusted downward, making some of the cash value available immediately; or continued at the same or smaller face amount with no further premiums to pay; or changed to provide monthly income payments for the rest of your life.
